Hot music from cold Moscow,
G9 tears apart all the stereotypes
about Russians.

Most people don't expect Russians to be sincere, loving and open-hearted, but G9 proves them
wrong with music and positive attitude.

The band speaks about unity
between the nations and universal love, that can heal the World,
finding fans all around the Globe.

Led by talented and beautiful frontwoman Aspi, G9 encourages female empowerment all around the World and breaks another stereotype about Russian women.

Having Signed a contract with the NY based Black Tears Media label in Q3 2018, G9's plans for 2019 are:

- a single featured on the major top reggae stars (I-Octaine, Dexta Daps, Beenie Man) mix album
- release the Single & music video
Say Da (featuring ZJ Liquid)
August 23rd, 2019
- series of shows in the US and Jamaica Q4 2019

G9 collaborated with the demanded Jamaican DJ & Artist ZJ Liquid to create a dancehall-pop hit “Say Da”, that will be released on August 23rd.

“Say Da” is music that never existed before. The music video features Russian ballet with the dancehall riddims, Kingston kids, singing Russian “Da” and the crazy party going on the outskirts of Moscow. The song is in English, Russian and Patois.

“Say Da” will be released together with the music video, shot in both countries. It celebrates women power, portraying all the women like the Queens of the party, who run the things. The child of 2 great cultures, “Say Da” drives the positive motivation, encouraging the listener to engage by simply saying “DA” (yes - Rus).
